Fredrik Gustafson

Product Manager - Web Developer

With a demonstrated history of creating, maintaining and managing product and teams. My strengths lay in creativity with regards to problem-solving, innovation and learning. But mostly it's my transparent approach and depth in working with teams, that gives me the edge.

By nature I always seek to create solutions, now after three years experience in leading product development for a SaaS start-up, I am advancing in Full-Stack Web Development. I thrive in an environment where I can utilize my strengths by taking ideas to reality collaborating with other creative minds
